Office of the R.D.A.

The proposed prohibition on the issue of complimentary tickets above a certain number cannot be imposed under the Bombay Entertainments Duty Act, 1923, as it stands. An amendment of the Act would be necessary to achieve this.

The Act is enacted for the purpose of providing for the levy of a duty in respect of admission to theatres etc. If an extravagant number of complimentary tickets is issued the object of the Act, namely, supplying Government with funds by the levy of a duty in respect of tickets paid for will be frustrated. The proposed amendment would therefore come within the scope of the Act.

Section 32(1)(f)(i) of the City of Bombay Police Act, 1902 and section 39A of the Bombay District Police Act, 1890, which provide for making rules for licensing and controlling places of public entertainment cannot be availed of for making a rule prohibiting the issue of complimentary tickets.
